

Partner Profile:

Centre Européen d'Enseignement Supérieur de l'Ostéopathie (CEESO)

CEESO is a leading private French school of osteopathy, and is designed to train high-level practitioners(osteopaths), with the clinical experience necessary to practise professionally, and also to integrate interdisciplinary medical teams or participate in scientific research. It was established in 1991 and is based near Paris. Teaching is provided by high level specialist doctors and by osteopaths balanced with practical training periods in hospitals. CEESO employs five full-time staff and fifty part-time staff, mainly teachers. CEESO has approximately 328 students for the year, primarily located in Paris – Ile-De-France, with an additional location in Lyon. CEESO does not accept foreign students, but offers the Erasmus Charter (European mobility) program for foreign students, bearing in mind that courses are taught in French.

CEESO's major activities include promoting osteopathy nationally and internationally, promoting research, promoting academic standards, and promoting professional development. CEESO's Research Department has received the HONCode certification, (quality of online health information) ISO 9001 Certified.
