

The European Institute for Osteopathic Medicine – (E.I.O.M.)

The European Institute for Osteopathic Medicine (E.I.O.M.) is a school established in 1993 for the purpose of providing training in osteopathy. The school has a staff of 23 full-time and 42 part-time employees. The school has 250 students in training and has one location in northeast Italy. The school's objective is to provide training and research opportunities in osteopathy.

E.I.O.M. offers special programs with the French school Centre Osteopathique Atman (ATMAN) and the Osteopathic European Academic Network (OsEAN), and is open to developing relationships with other institutes in North America, Australia, Russia and any other countries that would be interested.
